

Statewide Criminal Caseload Composition in 31 States, 2016

Statewide Criminal data from 31 states indicate that more than three of four criminal cases in state trial courts are processed as misdemeanors, which are typically lower level crimes subject to fines and/or less than one year in jail.

