

Incoming Non-Traffic Caseloads by Case Category, 2007-2016

Further disaggregation of the four Non-Traffic caseloads show that each were essentially unchanged in 2016, with only Criminal cases declining at a rate of more than 1 percent. This suggests that the declines experienced in the state trial courts since 2009 may be leveling off after six consecutive years of decreases.