The 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and Guam reported a total of 84.2 million incoming cases for 2016, or about 2.1 million fewer cases than were reported for 2015 (not shown). Just over half of all 2016 cases (53%) were reported in the Traffic/Violations category. These actions typically consume far fewer judicial and court resources than the remaining four categories of Criminal (21%), Civil (18%), Domestic Relations (6%), and Juvenile (<2%).
